2004 - 70ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Outlying Marina

Crafty Narrowboat is an excellent livaboard boat which has had much money spent on it in the brief time the present owner has had it. It is now for sale due to unforeseen circumstances. The boat looks as new due to a recent professional repaint to the top sides and hull. Recent work also includes secondary glazing to all windows. Excellent accommodation with large stable doors leading into the saloon area. Galley with granite topped work surfaces and a good range of appliances. Dining cabin which can also be used as a sleeping cabin. Useful broom cupboard/utility room which houses a washing machine and provides good storage and hanging space. Bathroom with bath with shower over. Bedroom at the stern with cross double with wardrobes either side. Stern cabin housing engine and all services. This really would make somebody a great livaboard or long term cruiser.
