Mel Davies
2006 - 70ft - Traditional Stern
Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia Marina

Vixen is a well known and much admired traditional style boat, built by the accomplished builder Mel Davis along very traditional lines. Vixen is well known to us as we sold it to her present owners in 2009, they have maintained the boat regardless of cost, upgrading throughout their ownership. The layout is traditional with a long saloon at the front with multi fuel stove, cabinets either side of the glazed stable doors, leather captains style chair and bespoke chaise long style sofa. There is a hinged table below the gunwale for dining. Galley with granite work tops and oak units. Walk through bathroom with quadrant shower, pumpout toilet and sink in vanity unit. Bedroom with fixed double with storage under, wardrobes at the foot of the bed, and overhead locker. Engine room housing all services . Very practical extended boatmans cabin with customary ribbon plates and brass.
