Orchard Marine / Collingwood
2009 - 57ft - Traditional Stern
Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia Marina

Lyric is a very comfortable, versatile boat with a mixture of traditional layout and reverse layout. The interior is a nice combination of ash t&g and ash panels. The layout has the ability to create 2 separate sleeping cabins with the walk through bathroom being able to be accessed by both cabins without any disturbance. The cabin area at the stern which has sliding privacy doors can be a dining area or used for sleeping. The galley follows this cabin which then leads into the saloon. The bathroom is accessed by a central door off the saloon. The forward cabin can be used as another saloon area or a sleeping cabin used as 2 single berths or a full width of boat double bed.
