Liverpool Boats
2001 - 57ft - Cruiser Stern
Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia Marina

Adagio is a versatile 57' cruiser stern narrowboat with a reverse layout, but with a twist in that the galley is at the stern with the saloon at the bow. From the bow is a large open plan saloon area, this is followed by the bedroom with a 5' extending bed with storage under. There is an overhead cupboard and wardrobe. The bathroom is off corridor with a shower, sink in vanity unit pumpout toilet. The saloon area has an L shape dinette with storage under, this area makes into a sleeping area for guests. The galley is at the stern with a good range of appliances. The Mikuni heater is declared as not working, but we have been instructed to address the issue. The present owners have kept a full service log during their ownership.
