Thomas Bantock 1895 - 57.9ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia Marina

Ballinger is a Bantock, cut down in the 60's and converted by Max Sinclair into what you see now. Much work has been done in the last few years to the hull which is backed up by a recent survey. The interior fit out is to a very high standard as is the décor, the roses and castles decoration has been lovingly done by Phil Speight. From the stern is the boatmans cabin with the familiar back cabin stove, drop down table and cross bed. The engine room houses the Dorman 2LB and all services, the drive on this boat is hydraulic. A passage way from the engine room has an off corridor bathroom with shower, cassette toilet and sink. The galley has a vanette cooker, concealed Morco water heater and fridge. A comfortable saloon has a recently fitted Morso multi fuel stove, Tv cabinet and 2 comfortable bed chairs. Ballinger is a piece of history only for sale due to unforeseen circumstances.
