Braidabar 2006 - 61.9ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia Marina

Autumn years is a real credit to her owners who have owned the boat from new and cruised extensively. As you may expect there is a good history with the boat. Being a Braidbar boat the quality off the fitout is excellent and full of character. From the bow you enter the good size saloon, to one side of the steel bow doors is a Morso stove in a tiled fireplace with a TV cabinet on the opposite side. The galley is well equipped and has farmhouse style dresser unit adding to the already great storage. Then follows a pullman dinette which will also convert into a double berth. The bathroom is off corridor with a shower cubicle, sink in vanity unit and Macerator toilet. At the stern is the bedroom with extending double, wardrobe, overhead cupboard and small dressing table. This is a quality boat which has been well maintained by her owners from new.
