Tyler Wilson 2008 - 57ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia Marina

Tommi is a good Quality boat on a Tyler Wilson shell that would be appealing to the long term cruiser/liveaboard, benefitting from travel power and solar panels to meet your traveling needs. Walking in from the stern you have a large sized hatch making it feel like a semi trad giving you that extra room into the galley. The galley has granite worktops all round, full size washing machine and loads of storage including a wine cooler built into the floor. Into a good size salon you have a solid fuel stove with a three seater sofa bed and I shape dinette with a tv unit with free sat. Next is a good size walk through bathroom with a quadrant shower, vanity unit and cassette toilet and towel rail. Heading into the bedroom you have a king-size cross bed with wardrobes either side, overhead lockers and storage underneath and full size glass doors looking out to the bow.
