Colecraft 1985 - 40ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia

Kottingham is a real gem of a boat. Don't be put off by the age, the condition is lovely both inside and out. Originally built as part of a competition run by Waterways World with a book being published detailing the build. Colecraft supplied the hull and superstructure with a lovely heavy, traditional fitout by Chris Lloyd. The specification is very much up to date and includes a webasto diesel boiler, Multi fuel stove, Inverter and battery charger. A good size well deck leads into the saloon with comfortable bench seating, which pulls out into a bed. Multi fuel stove and TV on a bracket. Galley has an Inlander fridge and Voyager cooker. Off corridor bathroom with shower, cassette toilet and wash basin. Bedroom at the stern with extending bed with storage under, shelves above the bed either end and wardrobe. The engine had a major overhaul in 2019. Survey from 2020.
