John Shotbolt 1996 - 54ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia

This is a very traditional boat with bags of character, powered by a very impressive 3 cylinder National engine. The style is very much of an Ice breaker tug. Entering via the bow is the saloon with the bed under the tug deck with a hatch above, shelving, fold away table, Antique French Armchair, fixed two seater sofa bed, and a French Enamel lily stove create a really comfortable space. The galley has all the amenity's set around quarter sawn English oak and solid Iroko worktops and side hatch. The off corridor bathroom has a hip bath with shower over, sink on vanity unit Cassette toilet and radiator. At the heart of the boat is the engine room that houses the National DM3 engine(Nancy) and all services. At the stern is the boatman's cabin with a solid fuel stove and a make up bed all set around Traditional decoration. This is a boat of real character, a real cottage.
