Jamie Bell / Jonathan Wilson
2005 - 62ft - Traditional Stern
Narrowbeam boat - Outlying

Lily is a boat anybody would be proud to own. Steel work by the well respected Jonathan Wilson, following traditional lines, including false rivets, and a bespoke fitout to a very high level of finish by Jamie Bell. Lily at 62' is the perfect length to carry off a boatmans cabin & engine room, while still having room for a bedroom and good size saloon. The layout is as you would expect traditional with a good size saloon at the bow, followed by the galley, walk through bathroom, engine room, housing the beating heart of the boat, the Gardner 2LW along with all the services. At the stern is the boatmans cabin, essential on any traditional boat with its stove, cross bed, and excellent storage. Lily is a high quality boat, both in the steel work and internal finish. Ideal livaboard/extended cruising boat, maintained to a very high standard. Appointment viewing only.
