Tolladine

1976 - 50ft - Traditional Stern

Narrowbeam boat lying at Hanbury

Countryman is a comfortable livaboard with echos of the past with its nice t&g woodwork. Countryman was built by Tolladine in the 70's, a company that during there trading period built some fine boats. Countryman is a traditional stern boat with a traditional interior layout. Entering the saloon from the cratch covered well deck you step down into the saloon area which has a multi fuel stove with back boiler feeding the radiators. There is sofa bed and TV cupboard. The galley has a Statesman cooker and Beko fridge. The bathroom has a shower cubicle, cassette toilet and sink in a vanity unit. At the stern is the bedroom with its fixed double bed with storage under, overhead cupboard and wardrobe at the foot of the bed. This boat has been a proven livaboard boat for many years and is for sale at an affordable price to get onto the water.
