Captiva £54950

Nick Thorpe 2006 - 55ft - Cruiser Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Dunchurch Pools

Captiva is a 55', cruiser stern narrowboat, suitable for long term cruising or residential use. The boat benefits from a complete re-paint in 2019, at this time the windows and vents were changed. There is some minor refurbishment to be done inside, as reflected in the price. Originally there was a stove fitted in the saloon which could be reinstated as the roof aperture is still in place. Entering the boat from the cratch covered bow area you step down into the saloon which has a dresser style unit to one side of the glazed bow doors and a TV on the opposite side. There are 2 chairs with footstools a hinged table and 2 fold up chairs. The galley has a Shoreline Fridge / freezer, cooker, microwave and toaster. There is a walk through bathroom with composting toilet, shower and sink in a vanity unit. The bedroom has a cross bed with storage under and wardrobe.
