Badger £56950

Stowe Hill 1999 - 63.3ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Droitwich Spa

Badger was built by the well respected Stowe Hill, a builder with a very distinctive style, renowned for the quality of the build. The style of the boat is traditional, but with a slightly larger stern deck. The original owner selected to have a fit out in Ash which has mellowed nicely over the years creating a light interior. The comfortable saloon has ample storage in the way of under gunwale units and a dresser unit which houses the TV. The galley is in a U shape with excellent work space. The bedroom has a cross bed with bed side cupboards and wardrobes. The bathroom is a walk through, followed by the engine room housing the magnificent 2LW Gardner with low recorded hours. At the stern is a modern take on a boatmans cabin in that it has a light fitout in keeping with the rest of the boat. Otherwise the cabin has all the normal features including the essential stove for winter cruising
