Wandering Willy £47950

Measham Boat Builders 1999 - 50ft - Semi-traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat lying at Mercia

Wandering Willy built in 1999 by Measham Boat Builders is a boat of quality, very well maintained by her present owner as reflected in the overall condition, both externally and internally. The wood work is of the highest quality creating a light and airy interior. Entering from the cratch covered bow which has lockers either side you step down into the saloon area which has a fire to one side in a tiled fireplace and a TV cupboard on the opposite side with shelves and radio. The saloon has room for loose furniture, a useful hinged dining table with chairs provides a perfect dining space. The modern galley has a Whirlpool fridge and Thetford cooker. The bathroom is walk through with macerator toilet, shower cubicle and sink in a vanity unit. The bedroom has a cross bed with storage under and wardrobes. The boat benefits from double glazed port holes & 2 sets of side doors.
