Narrowbeam boat lying at Dunchurch Pools

Callisto is a 62'tug style narrow boat with steel work by Jonathan Wilson and a fitout by the first owner. A long tug deck has a pull out double bed on castors under making movement very easy. Forward of the bed is a good amount of storage space, accessed by a deck lid. The saloon has a leather sofa, wall hung TV and corner diesel stove. The galley has a good selection of floor units. There is at present no gas in the boat, although there is still pipework from when there was previously. At present there is a microwave, toaster and kettle. The bathroom is a walk through with shower, sink in a vanity unit and cassette toilet. In the engine room is a Russell Newbury DM4 and all services. The cabin at the stern has a single bed with storage under. Good looking boat with a long tug deck, whilst still retaining good accommodation.
